

Erie County Common Pleas Court
Juvenile Division
Robert C. DeLamatre, Judge

The Juvenile Court has jurisdiction over dependency, neglect, abuse, delinquency, unruly, traffic, bindovers to adult court, certain adult crime referred to Juvenile Court, paternity actions, custody changes, child support enforcement, visitation and the modifications that occur in these areas, and contempt proceedings.

Each case is unique and has its own set of facts and circumstances that must be considered by the Judge or the Magistrates who hear these cases. Hearings include arraignment, adjudicatory and dispositional proceedings and other motions duly referred by the Judge of the Juvenile Division.

The 2012 operating budget for the Court and Detention Center was $3.5 million. The Court's budget was supplemented with an additional $615,000 in grant funds. From this budget, 93 employees, 66 of whom are permanent/full time, 5 of whom are part time, and 6 of whom are intermittent were funded. Of that staff, 39 are connected directly to court services with 39 serving the Juvenile Detention Center. The Northern Ohio Community Correction Facility has an annual operating budget of $1.2 million funded by the Ohio Department of Youth Services. The facility has 15 full time employees and 1 part time employees and provides services to youth from surrounding counties.

The growth of the Erie County Juvenile Court reflects the ever-changing needs and demands of our society. The future will require the Juvenile Court to adjust and continually develop effective, progressive responses to the legal and social needs of our children, youth and families of Erie County.
