You are hereby notified that this court has issued an order in the above case in favor of

 (Name and Address of Judgment Creditor)

the judgment creditor in this proceeding, directing that some of your money, property, or credits, other than personal earnings, now in the possession of _____ the garnishee in this proceeding to be used to satisfy your debt to the judgment creditor. This order was issued on the basis of the judgment creditor's judgment against you that was obtained in _____ Court, in Case No. _____ on _____, 19 ____.

 (Name and Address of Garnishee)

Upon your receipt of this notice, you are prohibited from removing or attempting to remove such money, property, or credits until expressly permitted by the court. Any violation of this prohibition subjects you to punishment for contempt of court.

The law of Ohio and the United States provides that certain benefit payments cannot be taken from you to pay a debt. Typical among the benefits that cannot be attached or executed upon by a creditor are:

- (1) Workers' Compensation Benefits;
- (2) Unemployment Compensation Payments;
- (3) Aid to Dependent Children (A.D.C.);
- (4) Poor Relief or General Relief (G.R.);
- (5) Social Security Benefits;
- (6) Supplemental Security Income (S.S.I.);
- (7) Veteran's Benefits;
- (8) Black Lung Benefits;
- (9) Certain Pensions.

Additionally, wages under a certain amount may not be taken to pay the debt. There may be other benefits not included in the above list that apply in your case.

If you dispute the judgment creditor's right to garnish your property and believe that he should not be given your money, property, or credits, other than personal earnings, now in the possession of the indicated garnishee because they are exempt or if you feel that this order is improper for any other reason, you may request a hearing before this court by disputing the claim in the request for hearing form, attached, or in a substantially similar form, and delivering the request for hearing to this court at the above address, at the office of the Clerk of this Court no later than the end of the fifth business day after you receive this notice. You may state your reasons for disputing the judgment creditor's right to garnish your property in the space provided on the form but you are not required to do so. If you do state your reasons for disputing the judgment creditor's right, you are not prohibited from stating any other reason at the hearing, and if you do not state your reasons, it will not be held against you by the court and you can state your reasons at the hearing.

If you request a hearing, the hearing will be limited to a consideration of the amount of your money, property, or credits, other than personal earnings, in the possession or control of the indicated garnishee, if any, that can be used to satisfy all or part of the judgment you owe to the judgment creditor. No objections to the judgment itself will be heard or considered at any such hearing.
