

IN THE COMMON PLEAS COURT OF ERIE COUNTY, OHIO

_____
Petitioner

CASE NO: _____

Vs

_____
Respondent

NOTICE OF VOLUNTARY DISMISSAL

Now comes the Petitioner in Pro Se (without attorney), in the above captioned action entering her/his notice of Voluntary Dismissal of the Petition for Domestic Violence Civil Protection Order ☐ Civil Stalking Protection Order ☐ Dating Violence Civil Protection Order ☐ filed on or about _____.

Petitioner further states that this voluntary dismissal is being filed freely and no one has forced, coerced or placed her/him under duress in filing this notice of voluntary dismissal. Petitioner further states that the "Full Hearing" has not occurred (only the Ex Parte Hearing) prior to the filing of this voluntary dismissal.

Petitioner further states that she/ he understand that the filing of this Voluntary Dismissal is being made pursuant to Civil Rule 41(A)(1) and does not prevent her/him from filing a new Petition for Domestic Violence Civil Protection Order or Civil Stalking Protection Order or Dating Violence Civil Protection Order at any future date; consistent with any parameters/limitations set forth in Civil Rule 41(A)(1).

Petitioner understands that upon the filing of this Voluntary Dismissal all prior Orders issued in this case are hereby terminated and rendered unenforceable, including but not limited to the Ex-Parte Protection Order. Furthermore, the Respondent may utilize this Notice of Voluntary Dismissal as evidence of the fact that there is no longer any Order of Protection in effect under this case number.

_____
Petitioner

cc: ☐ Judge Binette ☐ Judge Tone

Erie County Sheriff's Office
Respondent