IMPORTANT INFORMATION: If you have moved out of Erie County to another Ohio county your current permit remains valid until the expiration date shown on your CHL, you do not have to transfer it to your new county. When your current permit expires you will renew in your new county or an adjacent county. If you moved from the state of Ohio your Concealed Handgun License remains valid until it expires. You cannot renew your permit unless you establish residence in the state of Ohio again or if you work in the state of Ohio.
