COMMON PLEAS COURT
ERIE COUNTY, OHIO
2020 MAR 24 AM 11:50
JULIANA S. WILSON
CLERK OF COURTS

- WHEREAS; the Erie County Sheriff is legally responsible for conducting Sheriff Sales of properties where Judgment Entries of Foreclosure and Orders of Sale have been issued (except where a Private Selling Officer has been appointed),
- WHEREAS; Governor DeWine has issued a shelter in place Executive Order and all Erie County offices are providing essential services only in light of the COVID-19 (coronavirus) pandemic,
- WHEREAS: Federal, and State executives as well as The Chief Justice of The Supreme Court of Ohio have suggested that Foreclosure sales not proceed at this time,
- WHEREAS: Conducting a Sheriff Sale at a public place frequently generates a gathering that exceeds ten (10) people, which is against health and safety standards, and conducting Foreclosure Sales are non-essential,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Sheriff sales scheduled for the months of April and May 2020 are cancelled and no further such sales shall be scheduled or conducted until the June 2020 date for Sheriff Sales in Erie County, Ohio.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
