| SEVERE      | • Expect delays, searches of bags and traffic. Expect restrictions and restricted access to public buildings.
• Monitor the news and the Emergency Alert System radio/TV stations. Avoid passing unsubstantiated information and rumors
• Contact business to determine status of work day.
• Avoid crowded public areas and gathering. Do not travel in areas affected by the attack or is an expected terrorist target.
• Keep emergency supplies accessible. Be prepared to evacuate your home or shelter in place on order of local authorities. |
| HIGH        | • Continue normal activities but expect delays, baggage searches and restrictions as a result of heightened security at public facilities.
• Avoid leaving luggage unattended; avoid and report unattended luggage.
• Exercise caution when traveling.
• Continue to monitor and local events, as well as local government threat advisories.
• Avoid leaving unattended packages or brief cases in public areas.
• Inventory emergency supply kits and discuss emergency plans with family.
• Maintain close contact with your family and neighbors to ensure their safety and emotional welfare.
• Report suspicious persons taking photographs of critical facilities, asking detailed questions about physical security or dressed inappropriately for weather conditions (such as a suicide bomber). Report these activities immediately to local law enforcement by calling 9-1-1. |
| ELEVATED    | • Continue normal activities, but report suspicious activities to the local law enforcement agencies.
• Take a first aid or Community Emergency Response Team class.
• Network with your family, neighbors and community for mutual support during a terrorist attack.
• Check telephone numbers and e-mail addresses in your personal communication plan and update as necessary. |
| GUARDED     | • Continue normal activities but be watchful for suspicious activities. Report criminal activity to local law enforcement.
• Increase family emergency preparedness by purchasing supplies, food and storing water, review family emergency plans.
• Develop emergency communication plan with family, friends, and neighbors.
• Monitor local and national news for terrorist alerts.
• Update immunizations. |
| LOW         | • Obtain a copy of the Family Emergency Preparedness Guide from the Ohio Department of Public Safety or from your local fire department/local law enforcement agency.
• Access the Department of Homeland Security’s www.ready.gov Web site for information on developing a disaster supplies kit and emergency communications plan with family/friends/neighbors.
• Contact the Ohio Citizen Corps Council to explore volunteer opportunities in your community.
• Be prepared for disasters and family emergencies.
• Support the efforts for your local first responders (fire fighters, law enforcement, and emergency medical services).
• Know what natural hazards are prevalent in your area and what measures you can take to protect your family.
• Have first aid kits stocked. |

LEVELS

- SEVERE: A terrorist attack has occurred or credible or corroborated intelligence indicates that one is imminent. Normally, this threat condition is declared for a specific location or critical facility.
- HIGH: Credible intelligence indicates that there is a high risk of a local terrorist attack but a specific target has not been identified.
- ELEVATED: Elevated risk of terrorist attack but a specific region of the United States or target has not been identified.
- GUARDED: General risk with no credible threats to specific targets.
- LOW: Low risk of terrorism. Routine security is implemented to preclude routine criminal threats.
